

Presentation Name	Target Audience/Topic	Brochure Category	Description
A Children's Guide to Coping with Disasters	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	This presentation will assist counselors in providing children with strategies for coping with disasters. Children will learn what disasters are and how they affect people. The presentation also teaches children what they need to know about dealing with disasters (e.g. what kind of emotions they may experience) and what strategies they can use to cope with the aftermath. The coping strategies introduced in this presentation are applicable in a variety of disaster situations.
A Guide to Helping Children Manage Anger	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	From this presentation, parents will learn how to recognize and address children's anger issues with a series of coping strategies and activities. The ultimate goal is to teach parents how to create a calming, structured environment that will help curtail anger management issues.
Anger Management	Relationships	Adult	This presentation is geared towards adults who need help managing anger. Topics include defining anger, identifying one's "anger style," increasing self control through personal awareness, practicing techniques to manage one's own anger, and adopting new strategies to calm other angry people.
Anger Management for Teens	Teens	Child	This presentation reviews what anger is, how individuals display anger, and tools and ways for teens to manage their anger. If their anger gets too severe, the presentation helps them understand when it is appropriate to ask for help. Reviewing aspects of self-awareness and self-control are reviewed.
Anger Management - From Combat to Home	Reintegration	Adult	This presentation reviews what anger is, what triggers anger, ways to combat anger through various coping skills, and the differences in anger while on the battlefield compared to returning home. Managing anger and all the ways anger is manifested within a person is reviewed.

At Risk Service Members: A Guide for Command	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to teach military command how to recognize at-risk service members (that is, service members who may engage in potentially dangerous behaviors due to difficulties in coping with military life). It shows the audience what risk factors to look for, lists various examples of risk-taking behaviors, and encourages military command to reach out and build trust with at-risk service members.
Balancing Work, Life and Command	Work-Life Balance	Adult	Participants will review the unique stresses of responsibility and will learn methods of managing stress and how to find the proper balance between career and family. Responding to various demands is an ongoing process and this presentation attempts to explain tactics that allow someone to take better care of themselves. Sleep deprivation is discussed as being a contributing problem for mental and physical health issues. Risk factors and stress management techniques are also reviewed within this presentation.
Building a Healthy Marriages	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	Participants in this presentation will learn to create and maintain a healthy marriage through the development of communication skills, conflict resolution strategies and personal boundaries.
Building Resiliency in Children: A Parent's Guide	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation aims to teach parents how to instill in their children the ability to cope with challenging circumstances, such as the deployment of a parent. Participants will learn how to recognize the characteristics of resilient children; how to form and strengthen bonds with their children; how to build their children's character; and how to teach their children optimism, coping skills, etc.
Building Stress Resiliency	Coping with Stress	Adult	Is all stress bad? There are good and bad stress but this presentation discusses strategies to increase one's stress resiliency. This presentation reviews how to make your stress work for you, become aware of how your body responds to stress, and techniques will be practiced for reducing stress-related tension. The importance of connecting with others is a key component in reducing stress.

Challenges Faced by Dual Military Couples	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	When both halves of a couple are in the military, the relationship will have to weather many difficult situations. This presentation highlights the positive aspects of being a dual military couple, the challenges that the couple may face, and the various ways in which they can cope with those challenges.
Challenges of Changing Schools	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	This presentation focuses on helping students make the transition to a new school. Topics covered include the positive aspects of changing schools, tips on making the transition easier on all parties, strategies for forming new friendships, and ways to prevent declines in academic performance.
Children and Moving	Children and Youth	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to teach parents how to assist their children during the process of moving to a new home. Highlights of the presentation include the different responses children may have to a move, the unique issues that military children face when relocating, the positive aspects of moving, the "emotional rollercoaster" that children may experience during the transition, typical concerns that children might experience when moving, tips for approaching children about a relocation and assisting them in the transition, and how to know when to seek help for a child from an outside source.
Children and Separation Issues of Deployment	Coping with Separation	Adult	The focus of this presentation is on helping service members understand the difficulties children can experience when it comes to separation from a deployed parent. Topics include the emotional cycle of deployment, developmental issues that may result from a parent's deployment, common stress reactions in children and adolescents, coping strategies that parents can use when approaching their children about their deployment, tips for long-distance parenting, and how to know when to seek help for a child from an outside source.

Combat Related Stress Reactions	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation aims to prepare service members for the various ways in which stress may present itself during deployment, particularly in relation to combat. Topics include possible ongoing stress reactions, how such reactions can affect family members, coping and communication skills, ways family members can show their support, and signs that a service member should seek help from an outside source.
Communication and Assertiveness Training	Communication	Adult	This presentation focuses on providing participants with communication strategies and guidelines. Topics include the components of communication, verbal and nonverbal communication, the characteristics of an active listener, tips for communicating over long distances, typical roadblocks to effective communication, and the importance of being assertive.
Communication for Teens	Communication	Child/Youth	Participants in this presentation will provide participants with communication strategies and guidelines. Topics include understanding emotions, nonverbal communication, communication guidelines, listening skills, roadblocks to good communication, and the characteristics of a good communicator.
Communication Training	Communication	Adult	This presentation focuses on providing participants with communication strategies and guidelines. Topics include the components of communication, verbal and nonverbal communication, the characteristics of an active listener, tips for communicating over long distances, typical roadblocks to effective communication, and the importance of being assertive.
Conflict Resolution	Conflict Resolution/ Relationships	Adult	This presentation reviews the importance of understanding conflict, types of conflict typically seen in the workplace, styles of conflict, and typical ways we respond to conflict. General communication guidelines and how we attempt to resolve conflict are reviewed. Using appropriate communication tools and appropriate ground rules are reviewed to help resolve conflict.
Conflict Resolution Ages 4-12	Children and Youth	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to teach parents how to resolve conflicts with children. Topics include tips/ground rules for understanding and addressing conflict, communication guidelines, and problem solving strategies.

Conflict Resolution Ages 13- 16	Children and Youth	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to teach parents how to resolve conflicts with teenagers. Topics include tips/ground rules for understanding and addressing conflict, communication guidelines, and problem solving strategies.
Conflict Resolution for Middle School	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	The purpose of this presentation is to teach adolescents how to resolve conflict. Topics include the characteristics of conflict, the various ways people typically handle conflict, tips/ground rules for understanding and addressing conflict, communication guidelines, and problem solving strategies. The presentation concludes with a series of questions to encourage discussion from participants.
Controlling Anger	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation is geared towards adults who need help managing anger, particularly within the context of relationships. Topics include defining anger and its warning signs, learning to recognize when anger is creating problems, utilizing strategies to help manage anger before it gets out of control, and knowing when to seek help from an outside source.
Coping with the Challenges of Transitioning Home	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	The focus of this presentation is on helping service members make a smooth transition from deployment to life back home. Topics include special circumstances faced in the combat zone, challenges and roadblocks that may hinder successful reintegration, and tips for creating a healthy transition.
Coping with Challenges While on R&R	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	While R&R (rest and recuperation) is meant to be a joyful time, it can also be stressful. The purpose of this presentation is to teach participants how to identify common concerns/possible roadblocks to a positive R&R experience. Subtopics include coping skills, communication guidelines, and tips for successful long- distance communication.
Coping with Transition	Other	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to teach participants how to deal effectively with change. Highlights include coping strategies and guidelines for a smoother transition, tips for adapting to change, and a group discussion regarding personal responses during periods of transition.

Coping Strategies for the Uncertainties of Life	Stress Management	Adult	When expectations don't match the reality of what is happening it can cause various emotions to surface. Various coping strategies are discussed in order to give people control over what aspects of the situation they can control in order to take good care of themselves.
Coping Skills for the Recruiter Lifestyle	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation teaches service members and their families how to deal with the problems that may be caused by a family member's career in military recruiting. The goal is to provide families with coping strategies that will help them navigate the unique challenges of the recruiter lifestyle.
Creating a Healthy Relationship	Relationships	Adult	This presentation focuses on helping participants create a healthy marriage. Objectives include discussing the myths surrounding marriage, examining the stages of marriage, understanding the behaviors that cause/intensify marital conflict, and practicing strategies for creating and maintaining a healthy marriage.
Developmental Stages 13-18	Children and Youth	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to provide parents with the tools to effectively deal with teenagers. Highlights include characteristic behaviors of teenagers, the stages of adolescent development, parenting tips and strategies, and guidelines for establishing rules and consequences.
Deployment Survival	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation's focus is on helping service members prepare for and cope with deployment. Topics include things to consider when preparing for deployment and tips for managing separation. The presentation also discusses the importance of creating a plan that will help family members deal with day-to-day issues (finances, legal questions, personal matters, etc.) without the service member's presence.
Effective Communication Skills for Couples	Communication	Not on either brochure	This presentation reviews effective communication skills for couples. Learning the difference between passive, aggressive and assertive communication helps to make sure couples know how to work out their differences. Communicating emotions, active listening, and effectively utilizing assertive communication are reviewed so couples can learn to communicate more effectively.

Effective Discipline Ages 2-5	Children and Youth	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to help parents discipline young children effectively. Objectives include learning the stages of child development, understanding how children think and feel, practicing effective methods of discipline, and knowing when to seek help.
Effective Discipline Ages 13- 17	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation addresses the importance of effectively disciplining teenagers. Objectives include recognizing the characteristics of teenage development, maintaining good communication, practicing effective methods of discipline, establishing rules and consequences, working with other caregivers, taking special circumstances (e.g. the deployment of a parent) into account, and knowing when to seek help.
Effects of Extended Daylight and Darkness	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	Deployment requires service members to adapt to new environments, including changes in the length of days and nights. This presentation aims to prepare service members for these changes. Topics include coping strategies, the possible effects of extended periods of sunlight and darkness, and the reasons these effects may occur.
Emotional Eating	Coping with Stress	Adult	This presentation reviews mindful eating, four steps to practicing mindful eating, how to identify hunger, and easy tips to incorporate mindful eating into your daily schedule. True hunger versus emotional eating versus cravings are also reviewed. Portion control and suggestions to try at home are also presented within this presentation.
Facing the Challenges of Divorce	Divorce	Adult	Definitions and typical reasons for divorce, ways of coping with divorce, common physical issues resulting from divorce, and common emotional issues are discussed. How a person is impacted mentally is reviewed and the legal impacts of getting a divorce are reviewed. Discussion of how relationships are impacted and how finances are adjusted makes an impact on the family unit. Parental duties and other responsibilities are discussed as well as the process of forgiving a spouse for mistakes that were made. How children are impacted by divorce is addressed within the presentation.

Family Reunion	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation aims to prepare service members and their families for the reunion that will occur when the service member returns home. Topics include the difference between a homecoming and a reunion, objectives and expectations, the importance of communicating reunion expectations during deployment, the changes that may occur in intimate relationships, strategies for dealing with change, and tips for communication and readjustment.
From Combat to Home	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation's goal is to prepare service members for the challenges they will face as they transition from deployment. Topics include the benefits and difficulties of military life, the possible challenges that service members and their families may face during the reintegration process, and strategies for overcoming such challenges.
From Couplehood to Parenthood	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation aims to prepare parents for the transition into parenthood. Topics include ways parents can expect their lives to change after the arrival of a child, possible causes of conflict between new parents, techniques for avoiding conflict before it escalates, tips for making a smooth transition, and strategies for dealing with the deployment of a new father.
Healthy Relationship Skills for Singles	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation teaches single people how to prepare for a relationship. Objectives include clarifying one's expectations and priorities in a relationship, choosing the right person to enter a relationship with, understanding the right reasons for entering a long-term relationship, and practicing strategies for choosing and developing a healthy relationship.
Homecoming and Reunion	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation aims to help military families understand how to navigate a service member's homecoming. Topics include the adjustments family members may experience during the service member's deployment, the changes that may have resulted, things to consider when planning for a reunion, things to expect during the reunion process, potential roadblocks to a successful reunion, goals for the relationship/family, and homecoming tips.

How Children Grieve	Grief and Loss	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to help parents navigate the grieving process with their children. Topics include the stages of child grief; children's concepts, perceptions, and beliefs; common emotional and behavioral responses in children and adolescents of varying ages; and how parents can help children through their grief.
Introducing a New Baby	Children and Youth	Adult	The focus of this presentation is on helping parents introduce a new baby to their other children. Objectives include accommodating developmental considerations when introducing a new baby to his/her siblings, understanding a child's reaction to a new sibling, and preparing a child for his/her new sibling,
Issues Families Face When the Military Deploys	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation addresses deployment-related stress for service members, spouses, children, and parents. Topics include stressors for each group, symptoms of deployment stress, and coping strategies.
Life in Balance: Relaxation and Stress Relief	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	Objectives for this presentation include maintaining a good work/life balance, identifying stressors, recognizing the signs and symptoms of stress, practicing stress management strategies, reducing overall stress, and developing relaxation skills.
Making Marriage Work after Deployment	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation focuses on marital issues that may result from deployment. Topics include typical pre-deployment marital issues, changes that may occur in each person as a result of deployment, the challenges of reuniting and adjusting to life post-combat, and tips for maintaining a stable relationship throughout the deployment/reintegration process.
Maintaining a Healthy Marriage During Deployment	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation addresses the challenges a marriage may face during deployment-related separation, ways to protect and strengthen the marriage during deployment, ways to practice effective communication and conflict resolution, and things the spouses of deployed service members can do to promote their personal growth during deployment.

Matri-Money: Money and Marriage	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	The purpose of this presentation is to address financial concerns that may present challenges to married couples. Objectives include exploring emotional connections to financial matters, utilizing goal setting strategies, and practicing effective communication.
The Military Spouse: Commander and Chief on the Home Front	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation focuses on the accomplishments, challenges, and sacrifices involved in the life of a military spouse.
Mission Based Marriages	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation is driven by the idea that a marriage should be focused on a specific vision of the future. Objectives include defining the beliefs and values that give meaning and direction to marriage, understanding what the family does and where it's going, knowing the steps required to achieving goals for the family, utilizing strategies for strengthening and protecting the marriage, and practicing effective problem-solving techniques as a couple.
Mortuary Affairs and Grief	Grief and Loss	Adult	The families of service members aren't the only ones who might have problems coping with the death of a service member. This presentation is aimed at those who work in Mortuary Affairs for the military. Topics include positive aspects and challenges of the job, effects on personal stress, symptoms of grief, the "compassion fatigue" phenomenon, and coping strategies.
Motivational Interviewing	Motivating others	Adult	This presentation will review concepts within motivational interviewing and how this approach breaks down a person's resistance to change. The client is treated as the expert and knows themselves best. A person is guided through the MI steps with a respectful and cooperative style that encourages and empowers the client to make changes when they are ready to commit to change.
Nature and Prevention of Bullying - Bully Busting Activity Instructor's Guide	Children and Youth	Adult	This guide summarizes an activity that has been modified from Bully Busters, a programmed published curriculum to address bullying. The activity is designed for children in grades 1-8. Lessons include how to define a bully, how to recognize bullying behavior, how to reduce the likelihood of being a target, and how to judge whether they should handle bullying on their own or ask for help from a caregiver.

Operation Relationship for Couples: Communicate. Connect. Commit.	Relationships	Not on either brochure	This presentation reviews the foundations of building a relationship. Effective communication to build a healthy connection, fighting fair to solve your problems, and relationship tips are included.
Parent/Child Communication	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation focuses on helping parents communicate effectively with their children. Topics include the benefits of effective communication, typical developmental issues for various age groups, ways to help children process their feelings, basic principles of effective parent/child communication, how to communicate during conflict, and tips for discussing deployment with children.
Parenting Skills for the Single Service Member	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation's goal is to help single military parents develop effective parenting skills. Topics include how to resolve the guilt that single parents often experience, the positive aspects of being single in the military, guidelines for disciplining children and establishing rules/consequences, tips for communicating during conflict, how to address various deployment-related issues, techniques for effective long-distance parenting, positive aspects of separation, and strategies for building a support network.
Parenting Teenagers	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation aims to teach parents how to deal with teenagers. Topics include the characteristics of teenage development, components of the parent's role in a teenager's life, communication challenges and tips, strategies for effective discipline, and ways to address deployment-related issues.
Post-Combat Risk-Taking Behaviors	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation seeks to help service members prepare for the risk-taking behaviors that may present themselves during the reintegration process. Objectives include defining, recognizing, and understanding risk-taking behaviors; understanding the phenomenon of "post-combat invincibility"; and strategies for a successful transition from combat to civilian life.

Pre-Deployment and the Single Service Member	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation focuses on helping single service members prepare for the deployment process. Objectives include developing and maintaining support networks, creating a deployment plan, staying connected with friends and family, educating friends and family on various aspects of deployment, ensuring that important items are left in safe hands during deployment, preparing emotionally for deployment, finding mentors who can provide experience and wisdom, recognizing the differences between independence and isolation, and strategies for making good decisions.
Preparing for Your Parents' Deployment	Deployment and Reintegration	Child/Youth	This presentation focuses on helping children and adolescents prepare for a parent's deployment. Topics include things to expect during deployment, positive aspects of deployment, characteristics of deployment-related stress, coping strategies and resources, tips for staying connected with the deployed parent, and the positive aspects associated with a parent's deployment.
Principles for Healthy Relationships and Marriages	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation focuses on topics such as the origins of personal attitudes towards relationships, the characteristics of a healthy relationship, the importance of positive self-esteem, the stages of marriage, tips for writing love letters, and tools for building a healthy relationship.
Recovering from Divorce	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include the definition of divorce, the stages of grief/loss, possible physical and emotional reactions to divorce, coping strategies, tips for discussing a divorce with outside parties, techniques for discussing divorce with children, and recommendations for navigating divorce in a healthy way.
Redeployment Issues for Children	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation seeks to aid parents in helping their children through the redeployment of a family member. Topics include the emotional cycle of deployment; the stages of deployment; what to expect during the deployment process; typical physical, emotional, and behavioral responses in children; the stages of child development; and strategies for a successful transition.

Reintegration	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include the importance of the reintegration process, reintegration checklists for soldiers in various family/living situations, the various challenges involved in adjusting to role changes after deployment, common post-deployment reactions, and positive and negative coping mechanisms.
Reigniting the Passion After Deployment	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	This presentation focuses on strategies for rebuilding and maintaining an intimate connection after a spouse/significant other returns from deployment.
Reintegration Challenges for the Single Service Member	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to prepare the families of service members for the reintegration process. Topics include common problems associated with return from deployment, issues that may occur if a divorce was initiated during deployment, the phases of reintegration, myths and misconceptions surrounding reintegration, and guidelines for supporting a service member during the reintegration period.
Relationship Tips for Teens	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	The focus of this presentation is on providing teenagers with the tools to ensure positive dating experiences. Topics include dating tips; warning signs of possible abuse; strategies for handling breakups; and the differences between lust, infatuation, and love.
Responding to Toddlers Who Bite and Hit	Children and Youth	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include reasons children might bite and hit, the normalcy of biting and hitting, and strategies for curing a child of such behaviors.
Return Reunion Workshop for Spouses	Marriage and Relationships	Adult	The purpose of this workshop is to help military spouses through the process of reuniting with a service member. Objectives include understanding what each party has experienced during the service member's deployment, planning for the reunion and its aftermath, recognizing potential roadblocks to a successful reunion, establishing goals for the post-deployment relationship, and practicing techniques for a successful homecoming.

Reunion: It's a Process, Not an Event	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include expectations for reunion/reintegration, the phases of a typical reunion, effective communication strategies, tips for a successful reunion, and techniques that can aid in a smooth transition.
Reunion Briefing	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to help service members understand the reintegration/reunion process. Topics include the importance of reunions, common reactions to reintegration, changes that may result from deployment, positive coping strategies, potential roadblocks, and tips for a successful reunion.
Sibling/Parent Relationships: Building Healthy Relations	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation addresses family relationships. Topics include different types of relationships, unique characteristics of sibling relationships, ways a marital relationship can affect the children of the marriage, and strategies for managing conflict between siblings.
Stages of Deployment	Deployment and Reintegration	Adult	This presentation covers the emotional cycle of deployment, the phases of deployment, and tips for successful reunion/re-entry.
Strengthening Parenting Practices	Parenting	Not on either brochure	The goal of the course is to provide service and family members with parenting practices that will strengthen your family and build resilience, particularly during times of stress such as deployments and multiple transitions. The deployment cycle and multiple transitions are additional and unique types of stressors that military families must face. Reestablishing "equilibrium" or bringing "balance" back into the family following major life transitions, or upon a service member's return from deployment, can be particularly challenging.
Stress During the Holidays: Maintaining Balance and Stress Resilience	Stress	Adult	This presentation aims to guide service members and their families manage the unique stressors that are often associated with holidays. Objectives include recognizing the signs and symptoms of stress, defining holiday expectations, avoiding the "holiday blues," practicing stress management techniques, and utilizing strategies to guide children through the holidays with minimal stress to all parties.
Stress Management	Stress	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include the signs, symptoms, and effects of a stress response; possible sources of stress; the types, levels, and stages of stress; and coping strategies for managing stress.

Stress Management for Teens	Stress	Child/Youth	This presentation focuses on helping teenagers manage their stress. Topics include the signs and symptoms of stress, possible sources of stress, and coping strategies.
Stress Reactions and Coping Mechanisms: Honor Guard	Stress	Adult	This presentation focuses on helping Honor Guard members cope with the unique stressors that are often associated with the job. Objectives include knowing possible sources of stress, understanding the ways that stress can affect families and relationships, and recognizing stress reactions.
Summer Camp Journal	Children Activities	Not on either brochure	Write and draw about what you are doing at home and school, how you feel, about people you meet, work or play with, and whatever else you want to say. There are some starter journal pages at the end of this book, or you can staple some writing paper together or use a notebook.
Supporting the Bereaved at Home and Down Range	Grief and Loss	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to teach people how to comfort the bereaved. Topics include the stages of grief, physical and emotional reactions to grief, the characteristics and effects of survivor's guilt, tips for helping grieving people, and special considerations for when the bereaved is a long distance away.
Supporting Your Child Through Deployment	Deployment and Children	Not on either brochure	This presentation reviews various issues that may occur during deployment, what typically happens during the deployment cycle, strengths that can be gained by having a deployed parent, and parenting techniques that be off assistance with varying age groups. Problem solving and appropriate communication are also reviewed.
Survivor's Guilt	Grief and Loss	Adult	Objectives for this presentation include understanding the symptoms and effects of survivor's guilt, developing coping strategies, and utilizing tips for helping children and adolescents recover.
Talking to Parents: Effective Parent/Caregiver Communications	Caregivers	Adult	This presentation focuses on helping caregivers establish a healthy relationship with parents. Topics include the components of a healthy parent/caregiver relationship, tips for discussing difficult issues, and strategies for effective communication.

Teaching Children How to Get Along: A Teacher Guide	Caregivers	Adult	The goal of this presentation is to equip teachers with the tools for handling conflicts between children. Objectives include recognizing the importance of friends in a child's life, understanding the caregiver's role, knowing the various types of uncooperative behaviors, utilizing tips for teaching children how to get along, developing problem solving skills, setting rules and consequences, and effectively disciplining aggressive behaviors.
Teens and the Power of Peer Pressure	Children and Youth	Child/Youth	This presentation focuses on helping teenagers understand and cope with peer pressure. Objectives include understanding peer pressure and why adolescents often give into it, knowing the differences between spoken and unspoken peer pressure, recognizing peer pressure tactics, utilizing strategies for standing up to negative peer pressure, and realizing that peer pressure can sometimes be a positive thing.
The Emotional Cycle of Deployment	Deployment	Adult	This presentation focuses on the emotional phases of deployment, possible effects of the deployment phases, and tips for managing the reunion.
Three C's of Communication	Communication	Adult	This presentation seeks to help participants improve verbal and nonverbal communication through the use of the "Three C's" (communication, collaboration, and commitment).
Tips for Teachers: Working with Children During Deployment	Caregivers	Adult	This presentation is focused on providing teachers with the tools to help children through a parent's deployment. Topics include signs of difficulty coping in both children and parents, as well as tips that will help teachers minimize children's stress.
Transitioning to Civilian Life	Reintegration	Adult	See "Coping with the Challenges of Transitioning Home"
Trauma and Children: A Guide for Helping Children Manage Traumatic Events	Children and Youth	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include fears children may experience, typical reactions to trauma, strategies for helping children cope, tips for talking to children, and trauma reactions that may require professional help.

Understanding Grief Education for Caretakers	Caregivers	Adult	This presentation focuses on teaching caregivers how to help others deal with grief. Topics include the components of grief; common physical, emotional, psychological, social, and spiritual reactions to loss; tips for comforting the bereaved; characteristic grief responses of various age groups; and the importance of self-care in minimizing caregiver stress.
Welcome Home: Reconnecting with Your Child	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation's purpose is to teach service members how to reconnect with their children upon returning from deployment. Objectives include knowing what to expect from children of various ages and tips for reestablishing the parent/child connection.
What to Say when Someone's Grieving	Grief and Loss	Adult	The nature and stages of grief is reviewed, ways to assist the bereaved are discussed, and what to say and what not to say to a bereaved person is reviewed.
When a Parent Deploys (Ages 2-5)	Children and Youth	Adult	Topics covered in this presentation include relevant developmental issues, common stress reactions to deployment, techniques for preparing children for deployment and separation, tips for talking to children about deployment, ways to help children cope, and coping strategies for caregivers.
When a Sibling Deploys	Children and Youth	Adult	This presentation's goal is to help the siblings of service members cope with their deployment. Topics include the characteristics of sibling relationships, what to expect when a sibling deploys, the effects of stress, coping strategies, ways to stay connected to the deployed sibling, self-care tips, and the positive aspects of a sibling's deployment.